

The Movable Book Society
Conference Schedule
September 18 - 20, 2008

July, 2008

Thursday

5:00 - 6:00 - Registration, meet and greet

6:00 - Buffet dinner

7:30 - 9:00 - "Moving Illustrations: The Paper Engineering of Julian Wehr," Chris and Paul Wehr

Friday

8:45 - Welcome – Abigail Ranson

9:00 - 10:00 – "Victorians Loved Things That Moved: Pop-Up Books & Lantern Slides," Larry Rakow, Owner of Wonderland Books

10:00 - 10:15 - Break

10:15 - 11:15 - "The Flexagon series, a discussion of a project involving the production of 5 different movable structures over two years," Emily Martin, Book Artist

11:15 - 12:00 – Discussion with Book Seller Joann Reisler, interviewed by Collector Larry Seidman

12:00 - 1:30 - Lunch

2:00 - 4:00 - "The Brightest Heaven of Invention," Krystyna Wasserman, Curator of Book Arts, National Museum for Women in the Arts.

4:00 - 5:00 - Afternoon at the Museum

Dinner on your own

Saturday -

All morning - silent auction

9:00 - 9:15 - Business Meeting – Ann Montanaro

9:15 - 10:15 – “The Making of Star Wars: The Pop-up Guide To The Galaxy. An inside look at how an obsessive fan of Star Wars made his ultimate dream come true, recreating his favorite characters and their expansive universe in moving paper pop-ups!” Matthew Reinhart, Artist, paper engineer

10:15 - 10:30 - Break

10:30 - 11:45 – Ed Hutchins, Book artist

12:00 - 1:00 - Lunch

1:30 - 3:00 - “Movable Books - An Historical Perspective,” Daveen Herley, Collector

3:00 - 5:00 - Book Sales - Eleanor Heldrich

7:00 - Banquet - Theo Gielen, Collector, Researcher, Author

Silent Auction awards

Meggendorfer Prize